

Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009

Explanatory Table – Sydney Cricket & Sports Ground Stadium Fitness Facilities

Under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (NSW) (GIPA Act), there is a general public interest in favour of the disclosure of government information. However, where there are overriding public interest considerations against disclosure, or there are commercial-in-confidence provisions, such information will not be disclosed.

In determining whether certain information in the transaction documents for the Sydney Cricket & Sports Ground Stadium Fitness Facilities should be disclosed, Venues NSW identified the reason(s) under the GIPA Act for each redaction and weighed each redaction against the following key public interest considerations for disclosure:

- (a) promoting open discussion of public affairs, enhancing government accountability or contributing to positive and informed debate on issues of public importance;
- (b) informing the public about operations of agencies and, in particular, their policies and practices for dealing with members of the public; and
- (c) ensuring effective oversight of the expenditure of public funds.

Capitalised terms in this table have the meaning given to them in the Sydney Cricket & Sports Ground Stadium Fitness Facilities contract unless the context indicates otherwise.

Explanatory Table – Contract for the Sydney Cricket & Sports Ground Stadium Fitness Facilities

This table provides an explanation of the information that Venues NSW determined should not be disclosed in connection with the Contract entered into by Venues NSW and John Holland Pty Ltd for the Sydney Cricket & Sports Ground Stadium Fitness Facilities (Project). The Contract is comprised of a Formal Instrument of Agreement and the documents listed in clause 5 of the Formal Instrument of Agreement and as referred to in those documents.

Item	Clause reference and general description	Reason(s) for redaction under GIPA Act	Explanation of the reasons under the GIPA Act
1.	Clause 6.3 of the Formal Instrument of Agreement (FIA) Early Works	Section 32(1)(a) and paragraph (b) and (e) of the definition of “commercial-in-confidence provisions” (clause 1, Schedule 4). Section 32(1)(d), items 4(b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14. The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would place the Contractor at a commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility of the Contractor's cost structure or profit margins.	The redacted information is a dollar amount paid to the Contractor for the Early Works. Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• this amount is the amount paid to the Contractor on account of the Early Works;</li> <li>• the disclosure of this information would reveal the Contractor's cost structure and/or profit margin and prejudice the Contractor's legitimate business and commercial interests; and</li> <li>• exposing the redacted information would place Venues NSW at a commercial disadvantage when negotiating payment to contractors for future projects of a similar nature.</li> </ul> Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.

2.	Page 5 of the FIA  Execution Block	Section 32(1)(d), item 3(a) of the Table to section 14.  The disclosure of this information would disclose an individual's personal information.	The redacted information is references to names.  Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because, if disclosed, would reveal the personal information of the Principal and the Contractor's representatives who have executed the Contract for the Project.
3.	Clause 16A (second last paragraph) of the General Conditions and Items 24 and 25 of Annexure A  Insurance	Section 32(1)(a) and paragraph (a), (b) and (e) of the definition of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4).  Section 32(1)(d), items 4(b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14.  The disclosure of this information would place the Contractor at a commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors and provide visibility of the Contractor's cost structure or profit margins.  The disclosure of this information could be reasonably expected to reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract and prejudice the Contractor's legitimate business and commercial interests.	The redacted information is the minimum amount of insurance the Contractor and subcontractors are required to effect.  Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the quantum of insurance would provide insight into the premiums required to be paid by the Contractor. These premiums represent a cost in performing the Contractor's obligations under the contract and therefore reveal the Contractor's cost structure and profit margins;</li> <li>the quantity of the insurance the Contractor effects may be taken as an indication of the risk allocation of the Contractor. This may provide insight into the Contractor's financial arrangements and prejudice the business, commercial and financial interests of the Contractor; and</li> <li>knowledge by other contractors of the Contractor's obligation to provide insurance may have an adverse impact on the Contractor's ability to negotiate with other</li> </ul>

			contractors and diminish the competitive commercial value of that information to the Contractor. Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.
4.	Clauses 45.4 and 45.5 of the General Conditions Negotiated Provision	Section 32(1)(a) and definition (a), (b) and (e) of “commercial-in-confidence provisions” (clause 1, Schedule 4). Section 32(1)(d), items 4(b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14. The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the Contractor’s financing arrangements and cost structure or profit margins and place the Contractor at a commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors. The disclosure of the information would also reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract, diminish the competitive commercial value of information to a person and prejudice a person's legitimate business and commercial interests.	The redacted information relates to the Contractor's liability and the negotiated limitation on that liability including a percentage figure for the limitation of liability. Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• this redacted information limits the Contractor's liability to Venues NSW and the parties' respective liability to each other for consequential loss; and</li> <li>• this information may prejudice the parties in future negotiations on similar projects as the counterparty will be aware of the level of risk the relevant party is willing to accept. This reduces the competitive commercial value of the information to the parties and prejudices their legitimate business and commercial interests.</li> </ul> Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.

5.	Item 6A of Annexure Part A Contract Sum	Section 32(1)(a) and paragraph (b) and (e) of the definition of “commercial-in-confidence provisions” (clause 1, Schedule 4). Section 32(1)(d), items 4(b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14. The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the Contractor’s cost structure or profit margins and place the Contractor at a commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors.	The redacted information is the Contract Sum. Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• this amount is the amount payable to the Contractor. Disclosure of this information would reveal the Contractor’s cost structure and profit margin and prejudice the Contractor’s legitimate business and commercial interests;</li> <li>• revealing this information will diminish the competitive commercial value of that information to the Contractor as it would prejudice the Contractor’s ability to negotiate with subcontractors, suppliers, unions and other relevant industry participants if those parties are aware of the Contract Sum; and</li> <li>• exposing the redacted information would place Venues NSW at a commercial disadvantage when negotiating payment to contractors for future projects of a similar nature.</li> </ul> Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.
6.	Item 7 of Annexure Part A Date for Practical Completion	Section 32(1)(a) and paragraph (b) and (e) of the definition of “commercial-in-confidence provisions” (clause 1, Schedule 4).	The redacted information is a date. Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because:

		The disclosure of this information (or the combination of this information with other information that is not included) would disclose the Contractor's work methodology and planning arrangements and place the Contractor at a commercial disadvantage in relation to other contractors or potential contractors.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the date would reveal the Contractor's liability to costs exposures; and</li> <li>the date together with other programming information would reveal the Contractor's work planning methodology which would prejudice the Contractor's legitimate business and commercial interests.</li> </ul> Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.
7.	Item 13 of Annexure Part A Provisional Sum	Section 32(1)(a) and paragraph (b) and (e) of the definition of "commercial-in-confidence provisions" (clause 1, Schedule 4). Section 32(1)(d), items 4(b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14. The disclosure of this information discloses the Contractor's cost structure or profit margins and would place the Contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could be reasonably expected to reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract and prejudice the contractor's legitimate business and commercial interests.	The redacted information is a percentage figure. Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>the redacted information contains percentage figures which set out the profit margin available to the Contractor, which relates directly to the Contractor's cost structure or profit margins; and</li> <li>the Contractor may wish to contract with third parties, subcontractors or suppliers in relation to the Project in a manner where amounts paid to those parties are determined by a profit margin. These negotiations may be jeopardised where the Contractor's profit margin under this contract is exposed. As such, disclosure of this information diminishes the value of this information to the Contractor.</li> </ul>

			Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.
8.	Item 13A of Annexure Part A Provisional Sum	Section 32(1)(a) and paragraph (b) and (e) of the definition of “commercial-in-confidence provisions” (clause 1, Schedule 4). Section 32(1)(d), items 4(b), (c) and (d) of the Table to section 14. The disclosure of this information discloses the Contractor’s cost structure or profit margins and would place the Contractor at a substantial commercial disadvantage in relation to potential contractors. The disclosure of this information could be reasonably expected to reveal commercial-in-confidence provisions of a government contract and prejudice the contractor’s legitimate business and commercial interests.	The redacted information is dollar amounts of Provisional Sum. Venues NSW weighed the competing public interest considerations and determined that there was an overriding public interest against disclosure of this information because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• the amounts are the amount payable to the Contractor. Disclosure of this information would reveal the Contractor’s cost structure and profit margin and prejudice the Contractor’s legitimate business and commercial interests;</li> <li>• revealing this information will diminish the competitive commercial value of that information to the Contractor as it would prejudice the Contractor’s ability to negotiate with subcontractors, suppliers, unions and other relevant industry participants if the those parties are aware of the amounts payable in respect of the Provisional Sums; and</li> <li>• exposing the redacted information would place Venues NSW at a commercial disadvantage when negotiating payment to contractors for future projects of a similar nature.</li> </ul> Venues NSW considers that any public interest in favour of the disclosure of this information is not significantly advanced by the disclosure of this information and is outweighed by the public interests against the disclosure identified above.
